

Susan Kennedy is an associate and the lead member of the firm's Family Law Group. She brings over 25 years of strong advocacy experience to her practice, guiding clients through the delicate negotiation of prenuptial agreements, dissolution of marriage, child custody and child support issues.

Ms. Kennedy is experienced in handling real estate, bankruptcy and business issues which often complicate family law matters, collaborating with other Fowler Bell attorneys concentrating in those areas.

Ms. Kennedy is committed to treating each of her clients with dignity and respect through the emotional challenges which often accompany family law matters.
